

March 14, 2006

Written by Mehul Patel (mpatel1@costar.com)

Yazaki NA Signs On at Cornerstone Industrial Park

Japanese Manufacturer Leases 87,580 SF in San Antonio

Yazaki North America Inc. signed a lease for 87,580 square feet at 1510 Cornerway Blvd. in the Cornerstone Industrial Park in San Antonio. Yazaki will be the third tenant to enter a lease within six months after the building's completion. The company, which is currently in its build-out phase with plans to start operations by July, committed to a three-year lease term.

Yazaki North America Inc., a subsidiary of the Yazaki Corp. based out of Japan, manufactures vehicle power and data networks including wire harnesses, power distribution components, connectors, instrumentation and advanced technologies. The company supplies products to both automotive vehicle manufacturers and tire suppliers.

Ryan Smith of Cross & Co. represented the landlord, DAEC Taylor Management LLC. Matt Coale of Stream Realty Partners LP represented the tenant.